5. Brief summary of the Programme:

The BEST PROJECT AWARD and BEST OUTGOING STUDENT AWARD, an annual event organized by the Indian Institute of Chemical Engineers (IChE), Bangalore Regional Centre (BRC), was hosted in partnership with the core committee of the IChE-BMSCE student chapter on 14th June 2025 at BMS College of Engineering.

The event commenced with a warm welcome from Dr. Chetan A Nayak, the Head of the Department, Department of Chemical Engineering, BMSCE, to the distinguished chief guests, Dr. Y J Rao, Emeritus Professor, BRC-IChE, Dr. K S Rajanandam, Former Principal, MSRIT, BRC-IChE and Dr. Koteswara Rao Jammula, Hon. Secretary, BRC-IChE; Jury members, Prof. K A Badarinarayana, National Executive Council member, IChE and Dr. Shayam Prasad, Industry Expert, MPM Bengaluru; and the president of the event Dr. Bheemsha Arya, Principal BMSCE. Subsequently, an invocation song was performed, accompanied by the lighting of the lamp by all dignitaries. Dr. Chetan A Nayak, HOD, Department of Chemical Engineering, BMSCE, addressed the gathering regarding the importance of the professional body IChE and the event. Members of the IChE-BMSCE student chapter introduced the esteemed chief guests, which was followed by a felicitation ceremony for the chief guests by Dr. Bheemsha Arya, Principal BMSCE, on behalf of the Department of Chemical Engineering. The chief guests delivered a visionary speech that emphasized the progress of IChE-BRC events. Dr. Bheemsha Arya motivated the students through his discourse, underscoring the significance of publishing papers in the realm of research.

A total of five teams took part in the event, representing B.M.S. College of Engineering, R.V. College of Engineering, Dayananda Sagar College of Engineering, M.S. Ramaiah College of Engineering and M.V.J. College of Engineering. The department organized tea and refreshments for the chief guests, jury members, and participants.

Following the tea break, each team presented their project work with great zeal and zest, while jury members scrutinized the work based on the relevance of the work, presentation skills and ability to think on their feet in response to the questions posed by the jury.

Subsequently, the valediction ceremony commenced with the declaration of results. The BEST OUTGOING STUDENT AWARD was awarded to Ms. N Tejhaswini from M.S. Ramaiah College of Engineering, Bengaluru. The first place for the BEST PROJECT AWARD was secured by R. V. College of Engineering for the project titled "Development of nanoparticle doped polymer for radioactive shielding". B.M.S. College of Engineering received the second prize for their project "Biochar doped CeO₂: Synthesis, Characterization and Electrochemical Studies". All winners were felicitated by the dignitaries present on the stage, and participation certificates were distributed to every participant.

Dr. G N Rameshaiah, Professor in the Department of Chemical Engineering, BMSCE and the faculty coordinator for the IChE-BMSCE chapter, wrapped up the program by delivering a vote of thanks. The jury members were presented with a memento as a gesture of appreciation. Following the lunch was arranged by the department for the chief guests, jury members and the participants at BMSCE.
