

B.M.S. College of Engineering, Bengaluru
Department of Medical Electronics Engineering

Course on Global Perspective Change Maker in collaboration with the University of Arkansas, USA , From 23 Aug to Dec mid-2021. This was planned as a six-week student exchange course. Due to the Pandemic, it was a virtual course. This course was open to only pre-final year students (Junior students going from 4th to 5th Sem) of Medical Electronics and MBA.

The students from BMSCE (Medical Electronics and MBA) and students from UARK (Business and Biomedical) took this course virtually in teams. . students of BMSCE. The course was delivered by professors from UARK and BMSCE apart from the field experts from both countries. Dr.Abhishek Appaji was the faculty involved in this event, from Dept. This course was available for limited seats (20 only).

<https://news.uark.edu/articles/54265/new-course-and-collaboration-to-focus-on-problems-caused-by-pandemic>

Outcome-Learning about the innovation cycle to solve common healthcare problems. The experience was helpful to students for their future job as well as higher studies including cultural exchange. 10 students from the department successfully completed the course.

